Mr. Moy's practice focuses on patent litigation, pre-litigation counseling, and dispute resolution. He has considerable experience in all aspects of patent litigation, including trial experience, drafting appellate briefs, post-trial briefs, and dispositive motions, preparing Markman claim construction briefs, deposing key fact and expert witnesses, and handling day-to-day case management responsibilities. He litigates patent matters involving a wide range of technologies, including interactive telephone call processing systems, charter jet reservation systems, electronic immobilization devices, electronic payment systems, digital speech compression software, pharmaceutical products and processes, and consumer recreational products. Mr. Moy also advises clients on a variety of nonlitigation matters, including licensing negotiations, patent reexamination, assessment and avoidance of third party rights, and other patent counseling.

Mr. Moy is a member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association, the Intellectual Property Law Section of the American Bar Association, and the Asian Pacific American Bar Association. Mr. Moy was previously Counsel in the Intellectual Property practice group at Murphy & King, P.C. in Washington, D.C. He also was previously Special Counsel at Cooley Godward Kronish LLP in Reston, VA and an associate at Venable, Baetjer, Howard & Civiletti, LLP in Washington, DC and LeBoeuf, Lamb, Greene & MacRae, LLP in New York. He also served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Ronald L. Ellis, U.S. Magistrate Judge, United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. Prior to attending law school, Mr. Moy managed customer service operations at E-fax Communications, Inc. in Oakland, CA.

Mr. Moy received his B.S. in Mechanical Engineering in 1994 from the University of California, Berkeley, and his J.D. from the New York University School of Law in 1998, where he served as Online Editor of the Journal of International Law and Politics. He is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia, Virginia and New York. Mr. Moy is also registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office.
